MIAMI – January 18, 2016 – Miami law firm Meland Budwick, P.A. today announced the elevation of Zachary N. James to partner. James joined the firm in 2011.

James is a trial attorney with extensive litigation experience, having practiced in federal, state, and administrative courts throughout the states of Florida and California. He concentrates his practice on business litigation and complex commercial matters at all stages of litigation, from pre-suit investigation through trial and appeal. He also handles financial frauds and Ponzi schemes litigation, as well as corporate insolvency.

“Zach is an outstanding litigator who brings tremendous value to our clients and our firm,” said Mark S. Meland, partner and co-founder of Meland Budwick, P.A. “We are pleased to elevate Zach to partner as part of our commitment to offer clients access to the industry’s best and brightest talent and provide the high-quality counsel our clients require.”

Throughout his career, James has received numerous awards and accolades for his legal and community work. He received a bachelor’s degree, cum laude, from the University of Texas at Austin and a law degree, magna cum laude, from the University of Miami School of Law.
