Miami | March 6, 2023 – Meland Budwick, P.A. is pleased to announce that the firm will be expanding its office space at the Southeast Financial Center in downtown Miami in the summer of 2023.

The recently signed lease increases the firm's Class A office space by 15% to accommodate its growing team and create additional space for collaboration and client meetings.

"The expansion will foster a more collaborative work environment and provide additional facilities and resources to help us deliver exceptional results for our clients," said Managing Partner Eric Ostroff.

The firm has been a long-standing tenant at the 55-floor tower for the past 28 years. "As our firm approaches its 30-year anniversary, we continue to grow to meet our clients' needs." said Ostroff.

The build-out is expected to be completed by Summer 2023.
