Miami | March 11, 2024 – Meland Budwick, P.A. announced that the firm has appointed Bryan N. Vega as a Co-Chair of the Real Estate & Corporate Group. With decades of combined experience, Vega and existing Co-Chair, Mark S. Meland, bring a wealth of knowledge and leadership to their roles.

Due to the organic growth of the firm's Real Estate and Corporate departments, Vega will act as Co-Chair to help oversee the ongoing initiatives of Meland Budwick P.A.'s Real Estate & Corporate Group within South Florida's dynamic market.

"South Florida's real estate market is highly competitive, and our firm has consistently demonstrated its strength and prowess in this arena," said Bryan Vega. "We will continue to provide top-notch legal services within real estate and corporate law to help our clients succeed in this ever-evolving landscape, both locally in South Florida and beyond."

"Our firm's real estate and corporate practice serves a broad range of clients, each with unique needs and challenges," said Mark Meland, a co-founder of Meland Budwick, P.A. "As Co-Chairs, Bryan and I are committed to further enhancing our capabilities to meet the increasing demands of our growing client base."

Meland Budwick P.A.'s Real Estate & Corporate Group handles complex real estate transactions, commercial leasing, financing, distressed debt and workouts, construction agreements, business transactions, corporate governance, outside general counsel matters, and more.
